William H. Barnes, secretary of the Chicago Forty-eight Hour League of Employing Printers, declared to-night after a meeting attended by ninety-three employing printers who maintain open shops that the employers would maintain their stand for the forty-eight hour whether Newberry was elected:

At St. Louis 1,000 members of the printing and allied trades, representing about half the job house forces, were said to be on strike. Many printers of northeastern Wisconsin were in the agreement to the forty-four hour week, according to reports to the Wisconsin Typographical Conference at Green Bay vesterday. Green Bay yesterday.

Three hundred country newspapers in Lake City are reported out.

From Wisconsin and Minnesota paper mills come reports of 1,300 to 1,359 men out, due to the wage controversy in the paper making industry. British Columbia pulp and paper mills are reported unsfrected.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—Union com-positors in Philadelphia, Lancaster, Har-risburg, Chambersburg and Easton went on strike to-day for a forty-four hour working week instead of forty-eight. In Philadelphia the walkout was confined to commercial plants.

A morning newspaper in Lancaster

A morning newspaper in Lancaster A morning newspaper in Lancaster planned, if necessary, to use a photographic process to get out its edition. Other papers published with curtailed forces. Two evening newspapers in Easton published their editions, using new men. In most cities of the State the printers decided to defer action.

EASTON, Pa., May 2 .- All union printers in Easton were on strike to-day for the forty-four hour week. Those em-ployed on the Express and the Free Press, the two local afternoon newspa-pers, also walked out. New men were employed.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., May 2.-May 1 was met with a strike on the part of the job printers of the city, demanding a forty-four hour week, which the em-ployers refused. The tinsmiths of the city have struck against a proposed re-duction in wages. The building trades are still at work pending an agreement with employers. No trouble is reported in any of the factories.

AUBURN, N. Y., May 2—Employing printers in the commercial line having refused to grant the forty-four hour week the employees of all went on strike to-day. About twenty-five job printers are idle. Several shops continue to do business with non-union help.

Worcester, Mass., May 2.—Composi-tors, pressmen and apprentices employed in four printing establishments walked out to-day when the employers posted notices they would not put the forty-four hour week into effect. There are twentyhour week into effect. There are twenty-two on strike, according to the head of the Typographical Union local. The plants affected include that publishing L'Opinion Publique, a daily newspaper in the French language, and that pub-lishing The Catholic Messenger, a weekly.

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y., May 2.—All union job printing plants in Fulton county are closed to-day by a strike for the forty-four hour week. All wage demands by the newspaper printers have been refused by the publishers, but the men are continuing at work pending further negotiations.

NIAGARA FALLS, May 2.—As a result of the strike order effective to-day, in the Typographical Union's attempt to force a forty-four hour week for job printing compositors, the job printing shops here are all closed down or running on an open shop basis to-day. Printing pressmen here have not re-ceived any order to strike.

BUFFALO, May 2.—Ninety per cent. of the compositors and pressmen employed in job printing shops which have not agreed to a forty-four hour week re-sponded to the strike call, it was said at Typographical Union headquarters here to-day.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 2.—Three concerns employing only a small number of men are affected in a strike of the Typographical Union in effect to-day to conforce a forty-four hour week. Eight concerns are said to mave granted the shorter schedule. The larger printing and publishing establishments are now being operated on a non-union basis and therefore are not affected.

lieved the convictions should be reversed on the invalidity of the law of 1910. Chief Justice White, Justices Pitney, Brandels and Clarke asserted that Congress had power to regulate primaries but that the convictions were illegal because of the charge of Clarence Sessions, trial Judge, to the jury. Opinions dissenting in part from the majority opinion of Justice McReynolds but concurring in the result were read by the Chief Justice and Justice Pitney. The four Justices dissenting in part said a new trial of the case should be ordered. By a curious division of the court, the door probably is open to future legislative action by Congress to regulate primaries, but whether such legislation will stand or fall depends on the future attitude of Justice McKenna. He sided with the majority only upon its declaration that Congress in 1910 could not control primaries. The other four claimed that no such power existed then or after passage of the Seventeenth Amendment, providing for the direct election of United States Senators. Chief Justice White, Justices Day, Brandels and Clarke claimed that Congress always has the power.

Justice McKenna, it was stated, "reserves the question of power under the Seventeenth Amendment." Thus he holds the balance of power, even if a similar law under which Senator New-

15,000 JOB PRINTERS HERE GET SHORT WEEK

Pending Settlement.

The Employing Printers League announced yesterday that the shorter work week had been granted to the 15,000 printers employed in the book and job printers employed in the book and job printing plants of this city. The new schedule becomes effective with the first full fiscal week after May 1. The question of wage cuts was reported to be pending settlement, but Leon H. Rouse, president of Typographical Union No. 6, said last night that "Big Six" was not concerned in any such negotiations because the contracts with employers run until October 1. until October 1.

It has been unofficially reported that the wage arbitration board which has been considering the question of wages has agreed to recommend a 12 per cent.

White Plains went on strike yesterday, four hours' pay for the forty-four hour week. While sixty-five shops are affected, he said, fifty others already have instituted the forty-four hour programme and are unaffected. He increased the estimate of 90 per cent. of union men out, announced to-day, to 95 in order to get the paper out.
